18. Please provide any other comments you may have on this training.

Almost all participants thank for the high level of organization and implementation of the training. It would be desirable to organize such courses more often.

To make the training more purposeful, it is really necessary to plan for a longer period, because it is almost impossible to digest so much knowledge at once with such a heavy teaching schedule. The trainer was skilled and literate, the group was excellent and active. The training was quite interesting. Thank you
