

Title: Teaching in Time of Back to New Normal

Trainer: Tamar Magalashvili

Institution: Ilia State University

Date: 08.09.2021 12:00 AM

Number of Participants: 9

Nine teachers/lecturers took participation in the seminar. Seven of them filled the seminar evaluation form.

SECTION-1. OBJECTIVES & QUALITY OF INSTRUCTION

100% of participants agree or strongly that the objectives of the training were clearly stated in the syllabus and the training content was appropriate to the title and objectives. 57.1% (5 points) and 42.9% (4 points) think that participation and interaction during the training were encouraged. The same distribution is regarding acquisition of the new skills on the usage of online teaching tools and methods; and demonstration of knowledge and skills of the training topics by the instructor. 71.4% of the participants think that the trainer communicated well with the class. Also, most of the trainees state that the training was supported by adequate digital tools and learning materials. The online tools and technologies used during the training are accessible and applicable for them in teaching practice.

SECTION-2. SATISFACTION

Five out of seven participants are sure that they will be able to apply acquired skills in their online teaching practice. The satisfaction level is high as the same number of participants are ready to recommend the training to their fellow teacher. 100% of participants state the overall experience in the online training positive (4 and 5 points on the scale).
